The Rev. Dr. R. Scott Colglazier

Dr. R. Scott Colglazier is a native of Indiana. His academic credentials include degrees from David Lipscomb University in Nashville and Butler University. He received the Master and Doctor of Ministry degrees from Christian Theological Seminary.

He presently serves as senior minister of University Christian Church in Fort Worth, Texas. This church is one of the fastest growing congregations in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). He is actively involved and affiliated with the AIDS Interfaith Network and the National Conference of Community and Justice organizations in the local community. In addition, he serves as a trustee of Texas Christian University and Brite Divinity School.

Dr. Colglazier has published four books dealing with the spiritual significance of daily life. Touchstones: Spiritual Awakenings in Everyday Life is written for the contemporary spiritual seeker and offers them an invitation to awaken to their deepest journey of becoming fully-alive human beings. His most recent book is A Larger Hope, Opening the Heart to God. Other books include Finding a Faith that Makes Sense, as well as Circling the Divine: Spiritual Reflections for the Journey, and Yes to Peace: Sermons on the Shalom of God.

His articles on contemporary spirituality have appeared in Encounter, Journal of Worship Resources, Word and Witness, Creation Spirituality, and Chrysalis. He is known nationally for his preaching and editors frequently select his sermons for inclusion in sermon anthologies. He also has been featured on National Public radio and local television stations in the Fort Worth-Dallas Metroplex.

The Harrison-Shaw PREACHING MISSION has been established in memory of W.S. Harrison, Sr. of Asheville and J. Paul Shaw of Raleigh, NC. The purpose of the mission is to bring the ministry of outstanding religious leaders of various denominations to the people of Asheville, Buncombe County and the surrounding area. While the mission is held at Trinity United Methodist Church, the services are interdenominational and are designed to offer inspiration, Christian nurture and Christian fellowship to all people. It is our prayer that by uniting in this spiritual experience the churches of our community will be drawn closer together.

WEST ASHEVILLE — Don't expect God to respect your status quo.

Just as God asked Abraham and Sarah in the book of Genesis to leave their comfortable lives behind to venture onto a pilgrimage of faith, God may call contemporary Christians to change their lives, according to the Rev. Scott Colglazier.

"Just when we think we have it all in place, God moves the pieces. Just when we think we have arrived, God calls us to begin traveling."

Colglazier, the pastor of the University Christian Church in Fort W Texas, opened the 21st al Harrison-Shaw Prea Mission Sunday at T

"inspiration, Christian nurture and Christian fellowship for all people."

Colglazier talked about the need for spiritual transformations throughout life, listening carefully for God's call.

For Abraham and Sarah, "this whole idea of starting a new passage in life at their stage of life seemed impossible," Colglazier said. "But passages of life are not the same as stages of life."

One way to listen for a divine call may be as simple
